Olafsson and Gudmundsson v. Iceland

Dear Sir,

I refer to your application that was lodged on 12 September 2014 and registered under the number referred to above.

I write to inform you that the European Court of Human Rights, sitting in a single-judge formation (K. Wojtyczek assisted by a rapporteur in accordance with Article 24 § 2 of the Convention) between 7 May 2015 and 21 May 2015, decided to declare your application inadmissible. This decision was delivered on the last-mentioned date.

In the light of all the material in its possession and in so far as the matters complained of are within its competence, the Court found that the admissibility criteria set out in Articles 34 and 35 of the Convention have not been met.

This decision is final. It is not subject to an appeal either to the Grand Chamber or to any other body. The Registry is unable to provide you with any further details concerning the Single Judge's decision. Consequently, you will not receive any further correspondence from the Court in connection with this case. In accordance with the Court's instructions, the file will be destroyed one year after the date of the Single Judge's decision.

This letter is sent pursuant to Rule 52A of the Rules of Court.

Yours faithfully,
For the Court
